

Press Release

Monday, June 12, 2017

Media Contact

Randee Glassman
Director of Marketing
416-201-9390 ext. 300
marketing@organicgarage.com

Organic Garage to open Junction Road Market Location July 5, 2017

Toronto, ON. Organic Garage is pleased to announce the opening of its third store location on Wednesday, July 5, 2017 in Toronto's west-end Junction neighbourhood. The new 15,000 square foot store is located at 43 Junction Road (Keele and Dundas area). This will be Organic Garage's largest location and the first in a multi-store expansion into the Toronto market.

The flagship store will open at 9 a.m. and the first 100 people to shop at the new location on opening day will receive a free tote bag, among other goodies. At 8:45 a.m., the store will hold its grand opening ribbon cutting event with many special guests including MP's and brand ambassadors in attendance. Attendees are invited to spend time afterwards exploring the store.

"The upcoming opening of our new flagship store in Toronto showcases the evolution of the Organic Garage brand," commented Matt Lurie, "and represents a significant milestone in our GTA growth strategy."

Some of the features for this newest Organic Garage location include:

- A 100% Certified Organic produce department; one of the largest selections available in Toronto.
- A bulk section with over 100 options boasting over 80% Certified Organic items and 3 fresh nut butter mills.
- The launch of its private label program under the banner Kitchen Originals.
- A fresh salad bar with unique and seasonal items.
- State of the art, environmentally friendly refrigeration and HVAC technologies.
- 300+ car parking and patio seating.

“Our stores are different”, explains Matt Lurie, “you really have to come in and experience it yourself.”

On Saturday, July 8 and Sunday, July 9, in celebration of opening in the Junction neighbourhood, along with lots of in-store specials and bi-weekly flyer deals, Organic Garage will be putting on a Grand Opening Weekend Event with indoor and outdoor product demos and prizes to be won Organic Garage (TSX-V:OG) is a grocery retailer of organic and natural products. Founded in 2005 and headquartered in Toronto, the company operates a centralized warehouse as well as three stores in the greater Toronto area: Oakville, Vaughan and their newest location, in Toronto’s Junction district. Organic Garage has announced plans to open its fourth store in 2018 in the Leaside neighbourhood in central Toronto.

For further details visit <http://www.organicgarage.com>